Consent for Purposes of Treatment, Payment and Health Care Operations

I understand that as a condition to my receiving treatment from Family First Health Center, Family First Health Center may use or disclose my personally identified health information for treatment to obtain payment for the treatment provided and as otherwise necessary for the operations of Family First Health Center. These uses and disclosures are more fully explained in the Notice of Privacy Practices that have been provided and reviewed by me.

While I am here, I permit the employees, the doctor and all other persons caring for me to treat me in ways they judge are beneficial to me. I understand the attending physician will explain to me the nature of my condition, his or her recommended treatment and any associated risk involved. I also understand that he or she will explain to me other ways this condition could be treated. I further understand that this care may include diagnostic testing, examinations, and medical and/or surgical treatment, and that no guarantees have been made to me about the outcome of this care.

“Personally identifiable health information” refers to health and demographic information collected about me by my physician (or other health care provider, public health authority, health plan, employer, life insurer, school or university, or health care clearinghouse) that relates to my past, present or future physical or mental health or condition or payment for provision of health care. The information identifies me, or there is a reasonable basis to believe that the information may identify me.

I understand that privacy practices described in the Notice of Privacy Practices may change over time and that I have a right to obtain any revised Privacy notice by contacting Family First Health Center to make such a request. I may receive a revised Notice of Privacy Practices by calling the office and requesting a revised copy by mail or by asking for one at my next office visit.

I also understand that I have the right to request Family First Health Center to restrict how my health information is used or disclosed. Family First Health Center does not have to agree to my request for the restriction, but if Family First Health Center does not agree, Family First Health Center is bound to abide by the restriction as agreed.

Finally, I understand that I have the right to revoke/withdraw this consent, in writing, at any time. My revocation/withdrawal will be effective except to the extent that Family First Health Center has taken action in reliance on my consent for use or disclosure of my health information. Provision of future treatment may be withdrawn if I withdraw my consent.
